Packing tips

Flat comfortable shoes for sightseeing, waterproofs, layers, suncream/hat, medicine (all labelled and handed in to staff please including paracetamol etc)

Mobiles phones will be at students own risk and they must be responsible for them

ALL emergency communication must go through staff. Students must ensure that they DO NOT post on social media or ring home

We do not recommend bringing other electrical devices but bring some activities for coach (minimal) like pen/notebook and a book to read

Water bottle

Separate bag for hand luggage (and to carry around London)

Students will need money for food on way down to London and both lunch and tea on day 2. They also may wish to bring a small amount for souvenirs. The amount is at the discretion of parents and students must take responsibility for their own money.

Staff attending

Mr Nimmo
Ms Peers
Mrs Hutton-Searle
Mrs Griggs
Mrs Barker
Mr Hicks

Mr Nimmo is leading the trip and will have the school mobile phone. All students will be given the number for this upon departure on a lanyard. It is expected that students will wear the lanyard at all times – this is for the unlikely event that students become separated from the group.

These groups are for counting purposes only. You will not be expected to walk around in these groups. You must be in at least group of three, however, at all times.

Code of Conduct

- On the coach, sit facing the front at all times. Wear your seatbelt when the coach is moving.
- Stay seated until you are given permission to leave the coach.
- Follow carefully all instructions given by Crossley Heath staff. During excursions make sure you are in groups of at least three.
- Make sure you know where and when to meet back with the rest of the group.
- Be punctual at all times.
- Use proper crossings when crossing roads.
- Watch out for traffic when crossing car parks.
- Do not post on social media – we will post on our Music Department Instagram
- Be polite and courteous at all times.
- Do not behave in a dangerous or rowdy manner. No pushing, running, shouting, singing, chanting or swearing.
- You must not smoke, drink alcohol or take illegal drugs.
- Eat sensibly. Do not eat excessively between meals.
- Drink plenty of water.

- At the hotel do not go into other people's rooms for any reason
- Wear lanyard with school mobile number on at all times
- Look after your money and valuables.
- Do not buy goods from unauthorised traders.
- Do not speak to strangers unnecessarily.
- Do not mess around with sharp objects.
- If it is hot, wear sun cream, sunglasses and a hat.
- Make sure all medicine is handed in to staff and ask to take when prescribed.
- Do not use matches/lighters and do not start any fires.
- Dispose of all litter properly.
- THINK about safety at all times during the trip.

Please check that you are happy (both parents and students) with these expectations and sign the sheet this evening. If you were unable to make the meeting, the code of conduct is attached to the email and can be sent back to me in school or electronically.

You also must fill in the V5 medical form and return this evening (or asap).

Any questions...

Please use this as an opportunity to ask any questions.

If you think of any later please email me directly r.nimmo@crossleyheath.org.uk

This PowerPoint will be emailed out to all parents for reference
