

Mr Todde-Wilson

Teacher of English

Welcome to Crossley Heath!

You are about to embark on one of the most exciting things that will ever ever happen to you in your life: starting secondary school is a one-off experience!

You are about to say goodbye to everything you are familiar with to embrace new, thrilling experiences that will have an impact on you for the rest of your lives...

....and I'm going to be one of your go-to people as I will be sharing the start of your journey.

It is an immense privilege to be looking after you to ensure that your transition to Crossley Heath is a happy, calm and memorable experience. I am looking forward to meeting you loads!

About Me!

What can I tell you? I've been teaching and form-tutoring for over 30 years; I'm a long-distance runner; I climb mountains; I play a guitar (very badly); I love animals – especially cats; I grow my own vegetables.

My wife (Mrs Todde-Wilson) also works at Crossley Heath and we both teach English. Hopefully, we'll discover that we all share a lot in common as we get to know each other!
